Docket A: International Resolution 8203

Be it resolved,

Be It Resolved By This Student Congress Here Assembled That The United States Federal Government Leave Any Military Intervention in Syria As A Last Resort.

Whereas: There is no clear opposition in Syria, and;

Whereas: The Syrian Government is wearing thin, and;

Whereas: U.S involvement would likely lead to Nation Building in that country which the U.S can't afford, and;

Whereas: The Syrian government is much more equipped than Libya or any other nation in the Middle East that the U.S has been involved with, and;

Whereas: The full support of other nations, such as, China and Russia are needed before the U.S engages the hostile and well armed regime.

Therefore: Be It Resolved By This Student Congress Here Assembled That The United States Federal Government Leave Any Military Intervention in Syria As A Last Resort.

Docket A: International Resolution 2012

Be it resolved,

Leg_Title: A Resolution to Protect and further Democracy in the Middle East

Line 01: That whereas, Syria in a state of unrest and fear, due to the Line 02: forcefulness of their leaders and requires the assistance of Line 03: democratic free nations.

Line 04: Whereas, Syria has lost control of all sovereign and free ideas

Line 05: pertaining to freedom or democracy. Her leaders have become far

Line 06: too powerful and are running Syria into the ground. Her government

Line 07: has made vicious attacks on their own citizens who fear the Line 08: government's power and want it to change. The Syrian government

Line 09: has massacred hundreds of civilians that were making peaceful

Line 10: marches against the government trying to regain the government's

Line 11: focus, protesting their governments actions.

Line 12:

Line 13: Whereas, the people of Syria are crying out to the world for justice to

Line 14: be done, begging to be freed from a tyrannical government that

Line 15: fears change.

Line 16:

Line 17: Whereas, Syria is in a desperate situation being a possible base for

Line 18: terrorist factions, being direct neighbors with Iraq and Jordan, and

Line 19: being in close proximity with other unstable nations. Syria may

Line 20: become even more unstable if her people continue to flee the Line 21: country. The government's use of force may have instilled fear to the Line 22: point where the people will do anything to regain their country,

Line 23: including accepting terrorist factions to fight such tyrannical

Line 24: governments.

Line 25:

Line 26: Resolved, that the Student Congress here assembled make the

Line 27: following recommendation that a solution for Syria must be found,

Line 28: and be it the United States must enter Syria. Military or extreme

Line 29: diplomatic actions must be taken against the Syrian government to

Docket B: International Resolution 2012

Be it resolved,

01: Whereas, the humanitarian situation in Syria is at a crisis level, and

02:

03: Whereas, insurgent's hopes for United States intervention serve to

04: escalate and prolong the violence, and

05:

06: Whereas, the United States has a number of avenues for action that do

07: not involve military intervention, and

08:

09: Whereas, military actions in the region involve high levels of negative

10: blowback that undermine U.S. status, and

11:

12: Whereas, escalating the levels of violence through military intervention

13: would cause high numbers of civilian casualties, therefore, be it

14:

15: Resolved, by the Student Congress here assembled, that the United

16: States declare to remain neutral and non-interventionist regarding the 17: ongoing conflicts in Syria.
